

Video: Residents with dementia

Transcript

Gracie, where have you been?

We've been looking all over for you. We nearly called the police. Well don't you ever walk off like that again?

Why are you call the police? Come on, it's dinner time, let's go.

No, the flowers they need water and I need, I need to look after them.

You do not need to do that, the gardener will do it.

What gard-- I am the gardener. This is my garden.

Stop acting like a child. Don't be silly. Come on, let's go.

You want some? Hello Gracie. What a lovely garden this is. This is my garden. This is my flowers. Yes, and you're doing a great job. You like this one? Look, I, look this one. This is special. I grow this one from tiny, tiny seed. And look how big he's got and the colours, so many colours. And here you have to wipe, to do each one, I put in here.

It's beautiful. It is a very nice pinwheel yes.

Pinwheel, okay. Pinwheel flower, and you like this rose. It's beautiful.

It's a very beautiful rose. We have a big book about roses inside, would you like to come inside and take a look at it?

I wrote this book.

Yes, you did. Let's go inside and take a look and we can talk all about it.

About the roses?

Yes, the roses.

And this one here, the pinwheel.

And we can see if we can find a flower that looks like that pinwheel.